

Irene SACRISTAN SANCHEZ

Administrator, Pharmaceuticals Unit, DG Enterprise and Industry, European Commission

Irene Sacristán joined the European Commission in May 2003 to be responsible for general legal affairs within the Pharmaceuticals Unit in DG Enterprise. In that position, she has been closely associated to the completion of the legislative process for the review of the pharmaceutical legislation and its implementation, and to the drafting of the Commission's proposal on medicines for children.

Between 1994 and 2003, she worked as a lawyer, with a specialisation in Community and competition law, and as a legal consultant to the European Commission and the Inter-American Development Bank in various technical assistance projects in central and eastern Europe and Latin America.

Degree in Law, Madrid, 1993; Degree in Economics, Madrid, 1994; LL.M., Bruges, 1999.

VI eami
Lisboa 2006